- Multi-Axle Units

R.V. Coleman Trucking, Inc. provides a transportation service that covers a wide spectrum of specialized freight requirements. Specifically adapted to the individual needs of our customers R.V. Coleman transports freight where weight, and/or length, width and height dimensions exceed standard transport capabilities.

Experienced drivers and staff ensure a safe and timely delivery of all shipments.

R.V. Coleman meets the challenges of burdensome logistics that accompany the transportation of oversized freight. These include acquiring highway permits, scheduling police and civilian escorts and performing route surveys.

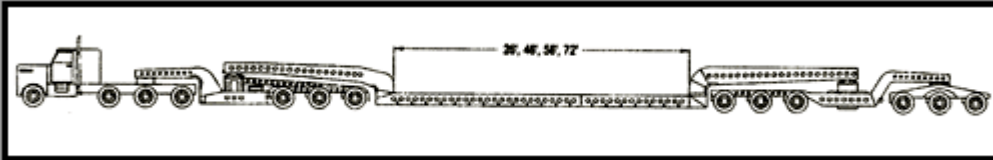

R.V. Coleman provides complete project management, enabling our customers to perform cost analysis to determine the most effective method of freight transportation, including cartage by truck, barge or rail.
